DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-8, drawn to nucleic acid sequence, fragments, vectors and host cells classified in class 536, subclass 23.1, for example.
 - II. Claims 9-10 and 13-14, drawn to an IL-17 receptor-related protein, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
 - III. Claims 11-12 and 15-16, drawn to antibody, classified in class 530, subclass 387.3.
 - IV. Claims 17-19, drawn to method of stimulating the secretion of cytokines, classified in class 435, subclass 69.5.
 - V. Claims 20 and 21, drawn to a method of modulating the expression and activation of IL-17, classified in class 435, subclass 69.5.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I-III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions differ one from the other because they are drawn to products that differ structurally, chemically, and functionally.
3. Inventions IV and V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions differ one from the other in that they are drawn to different method, wherein the steps, reagents, and purposes of use are distinct and separate.

4. Inventions I-III and IV-V are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the methods of IV and V can be used with materially distinct products other than those of the instant application.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- a. If group I is selected, in claims 1 and 6, please select one of the following SEQ ID No: 1-4.
- b. If group II is selected, in claims 9 and 13, please select one of SEQ ID
No: 3-4 and select one from SEQ ID No: 5-8
- c. If group III is selected, in claim 18, please select one of the following cytokines: IL-1, IL-8, and TNF alpha

Art Unit: 1642

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 1,6,9,13, and 18 generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
